

Frequently Asked Questions

How is it possible to get a Utah or Arizona CCW permit without being a resident of either state?

Answer: Many states (including UT and AZ) offer non-resident permits to gun owners outside of their states. This allows non-residents to take advantage of the reciprocity that Utah and Arizona have negotiated with other states.

What's required to obtain an Arizona concealed firearm permit?

Answer: Applicants must:

- (1) be a resident of this state or a United States citizen
- (2) be twenty-one years of age or older
- (3) not be under indictment for a felony offense
- (4) not be convicted of a felony offense, unless the conviction has been expunged, set aside, vacated or pardoned, or the individual's right to possess firearms has been restored AND the individual must not be a prohibited possessor under state or federal law.
- (5) not suffer from mental illness and been adjudicated mentally incompetent or committed to a mental institution
- (6) not be unlawfully present in the United States
- (7) complete a firearms safety training program.

After completing the training course you must call the AZ Department of Public Safety (602-256-6280) and request an application packet (IF you did not receive an application at the course). Once you receive your application packet you will need to return it with the following:

- (1) Two sets of fingerprints
- (2) Wolfcreek Training and Consulting LLC certificate of completion (or photocopy of Utah permit)
- (3) Completed application in BLACK IN ONLY
- (4) $60 cashier's check, money order, or certified check payable to AZ DPS.

Do I need my home state permit also?

Answer: If your resident state has reciprocity with Utah you must have your resident state permit prior to submittal for the Utah non-resident permit. You do not need to have your resident permit prior to taking our class. You will just need it prior to mailing in your Utah application (which you have one year after the class to do). If you are submitting for the Arizona permit you do not need your resident state permit first.

How much do you charge for your classes?

Answer: We charge $90-$150 per person which may or may not include fingerprint services depending upon location.

What other fees are there in addition to class cost?

Answer: Utah Permit Fee is $51 for the first five years. Subsequent renewals are just $15 for five years. You do not need this fee the night of the class but will mail this with your application to Utah. Acceptable forms of payment are personal check, money order or credit card. Please make check or money order payable to Utah Bureau of Criminal Identification.

Answer: Arizona Permit Fee is $60 for the first five years. Subsequent renewals are just $43 for five years. Acceptable forms of payment include a money order, cashier's or certified check made payable to AZ DPS. Personal checks are not accepted.

What do I need to bring to class with me?

Answer: A government issued photo ID and your payment.

What forms of payment do you accept?

Answer: Cash or check.

How long is your class?

Answer: Approximately 4 hours, but allow another 30-45 minutes if fingerprint services are provided.

Am I required to take a test or shoot a gun?

Answer: No, there is no test or gun handling involved with the class.

Do you provide fundraising opportunities for groups in conjunction with your classes?

Answer: Yes. We welcome and enjoy these opportunities which can provide large fundraising opportunities for your group. If your group is willing to sponsor a class and pre-sell tickets, we can provide a great fundraising opportunity for your group.

What do you cover in your classes?

Answer: We teach the entire curriculum required by the Utah Bureau of Criminal Identification. The topics we cover include firearm safety, ammunition types and malfunctions, handgun types, firearm maintenance, concealed carry techniques (including live demonstrations), prohibited areas, state and federal firearm laws, self-defense laws, firearm transportation laws, and much more.
